

Job Seekers

UNE Partnerships can offer funded training through the NSW Productivity Places Program. This training is funded by the NSW Government in partnership with the Australian Government. Opportunities are available through individual distance delivery or workshops.

PRODUCTIVITY PLACES PROGRAM (PPP) for job seekers

Eligibility Criteria - Participants must be NSW residents in NSW and be an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident or humanitarian refugee. They may have previously undertaken or completed other training programs, but must not be currently enrolled in any other training.

A Job seeker must be registered with an employment service provider, or be an income support recipient who is not currently required to meet activity test or participation requirements, or not currently be working and is seeking or intending to seek paid employment or self-employment after completing training or other mainstream criteria.

Qualification available	Contribution per year of training	Candidature period
Diploma of Project Management (BSB51407)	$50	2 years

Diploma of Project Management (BSB51407) - This qualification is for project managers who are responsible for the entire lifecycle of a project. It provides the skills and working knowledge, as well as the understanding of methods, techniques and tools available, to plan and manage projects that achieve the goals and objectives important to project managers and their organisation.

Expected outcomes - Graduates of the Diploma of Project Management will have achieved the knowledge and skills to plan and manage the critical elements of projects and to:

- Write effective project plans to meet the delivery requirements of corporate/business expectations
- Use mechanisms linked with the plan for the day-to-day control of projects to meet objectives
- Provide quality deliverables, with the ability to meet reporting requirements on demand
- Select appropriate tools to support monitoring and control mechanisms
- Assign agreed responsibilities to get the best out of core and broader team capabilities.
